He did not give explanation for the late filing of the expenditure statement. He stated that he was not aware of the legal requirement of filing the expenditure statement within 30 days of declaration of the result as per provision of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973.

Sh. Sahib Singh had filed election expenditure account on 13th March, 2008. He also stated that he did not know that the election expenditure statement has to be filed within 30 days of the declaration of the result.

Sh. Ram Parshad, husband of Om Pati informed that his wife Om Pati had filed the election expenditure account on 22nd May, 2008, when she received a show cause notice. He also pleaded ignorance of the provision of the Municipal Act in this regard.

Sh. Prem Chand, who represented his wife Sunita Rani, stated that his wife did not file the election expenditure account because of ignorance.

Sh. Lal Chand stated that he had filed election expenditure statement on 10th March, 2008 in response of the show cause notice received from the State Election Commission, Haryana. Earlier he was not aware of the provision of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973.
